

ANGELENA BRADFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
AML/BSA, SANCTIONS & PRIVACY

Angelena.Bradfield@BPI.com

202.589.1935

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/angelena-bradfield-33a92211/>

Angelena Bradfield is Senior Vice President, AML/BSA, Sanctions & Privacy for the Bank Policy Institute. Previously, Ms. Bradfield was a Vice President at The Clearing House Association, where she supported its regulatory affairs department in various policy areas, with a focus on anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism, sanctions and privacy.

Previously, she supported comprehensive immigration reform efforts at ImmigrationWorks USA. She also worked on various domestic policy issues at the White House where she served as a staff assistant in both the Domestic Policy Council and Presidential Correspondence offices. She received her MBA in International Business from the University of Edinburgh and a BA in Political Science from the University of California, Irvine.