

TRACEY SCHRIVER
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF
MEMBERSHIP AND EVENTS

 Tracey.Schriver@BPI.com

 (202) 589-2436

Tracey Schriver is Senior Vice President of Membership and Events at the Bank Policy Institute. In this capacity, she provides strategic direction and execution of member engagement activities and communications. She also directly oversees all aspects of BPI events that are held in Washington, DC. Previously, Ms. Schriver served as Director of Meetings and Events for the Financial Services Roundtable (FSR).

Prior to joining FSR, Ms. Schriver served as Public Affairs Associate at the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), where she worked as a member of the Public Affairs team with an emphasis on program management. Ms. Schriver holds a B.A. in journalism and mass communications with a focus on public relations from the University of South Carolina.