

International Bank Regulation Forum

Virtual (Zoom) | Tuesday, Nov. 30, 2021

08:00 – 12:00 Washington DC / 13:00-17:00 London / 14:00-18:00 Paris / 21:00-01:00 Tokyo
[Zoom Details]

8:00am – 8:0am:	Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lauren Anderson, Senior Vice President, Associate General Counsel, BPI• Martin Boer, Director, Regulatory Affairs, IIF
8:05am – 8:10am:	Introductory Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tim Adams, President and CEO, IIF
8:10am – 9:05am:	Risks to the International Prudential Framework: This panel will look at some of the pressures facing the international prudential regulatory landscape as regulators look to finalize the Basel 3 package of rules and as jurisdictions continue to evaluate perceived issues of regulatory arbitrage: Moderator: to be announced Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Charles Gray, U.S. Federal Reserve Board• Tomohiro Ishikawa, MUFG• Additional speakers to be confirmed
9:05am – 10:00 am:	The FSB’s Climate Roadmap: This panel will discuss the FSB’s multiyear work program for climate focusing on the four pillars of disclosure, data, vulnerabilities analysis and supervisory and regulatory tools. Panelists will discuss what elements of the roadmap are most critical in the near term and how climate financial risk tools, such as scenario analysis, are evolving. Moderator: to be announced Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Claire Wallace-Jones, Barclays• Additional speakers to be confirmed
10:00am – 10:45 am:	Keynote Speech: Jon Cunliffe, Deputy Governor for Financial Stability, Bank of England Introduced by Greg Baer, President and CEO, BPI

10:45am – 11:40 am: The Road Ahead for Digital Assets and Innovation: This panel will cover current regulatory developments in relation to the prudential treatment of digital assets as well as efforts underway through the international regulatory community to foster innovation in payments:

Moderator: to be announced

Speakers:

- Charlotte Hogg, VISA
- Additional speakers to be confirmed

12:35pm – 12:40 pm: Concluding Remarks

- Lauren Anderson, Senior Vice President, Associate General Counsel, BPI
- Martin Boer, Director, Regulatory Affairs, IIF